HOUSE WITH A HISTORY

'Unravelling Uppark' is the third in a trilogy of exhibitions at National Trust properties for which artists are invited to intervene at a house through site-specific, storytelling works. This time, at Uppark House and Garden in Petersfield, one 70-year-old owner's scandalous marriage to his 20-year-old dairy maid in 1825 has inspired Gen Doy's sound-based piece in the dairy; the restoration project that followed a devastating fire in 1989 has prompted Zoe Hillyard to create hand-stitched patchwork ceramics (pictured right); and Steven Follen has made metal origami boats filled with spices for his 'Trade' installation, inspired by a former baronet's links with shipping and the East India Company (pictured left). May 4–November 2; South Harting, Petersfield GU31 (unravelled.org.uk).

Don't miss Room & Book at the ICA in association with Claire de Rouen Books. Dedicated to rare art tomes, the fair will see 20 dealers present a range of iconic publications, including a Yohji Yamamoto catalogue that was shot by Nick Knight and designed by Peter Saville. June 6–8; The Mall, London SW1 (ica.org.uk).

TABLE TALK

Inspired by the pebbles in Japanese gardens, the latest version of Barber Osgerby's 'Tobi-Ishi' table for B&B Italia has an intriguing shape. Lacquered in a glossy 'Candy Red' shade, it may be pricey, but it has 'future classic' written all over it. From £4,313 (bebitalia.com).

BURST INTO BLOOM

These pretty hand-painted plates are from the new 'Artesano Provençal' range by Villeroy & Boch. The 20-piece collection features illustrations of Provence's flora and fauna by Belgian artist Isabelle de Borchgrave. From £18.90 for a salad plate (villeroy-boch.co.uk).
